

Workshops for FY 2015 Water Quality Financial Assistance

The Washington Department of Ecology (Ecology) will hold workshops to provide information about the state’s combined water quality grant and loan funding cycle and to review the FY (state fiscal year) 2015 application for the following funding sources:

- Washington State Water Pollution Control Revolving Fund
- Centennial Clean Water Program
- Federal Clean Water Act Section 319 Nonpoint Source Fund

If you attend, you will get the most up-to-date information on the funding cycle and how to apply. You can speak with the experts from Ecology and get answers to your questions about the application process. The workshops will include training on applying for funding through Ecology’s new web-based grant and loan management system called, Ecology Administration of Grants and Loans (EAGL).

Workshop schedule

9:00 a.m. – 9:45 a.m.	Program overview and information on what’s new for this funding cycle.
10 a.m. – 12 p.m.	Breakout sessions for facilities projects and activities projects. Includes an overview of applying through EAGL, application details, scoring criteria, and information about hardship for facilities projects.
12:00 – 1:00 p.m.	Lunch (No lunch provided.)
1:00 – 3:00 p.m.	Break-out sessions continued

Who can apply for funding?

Public entities, including local governments, conservation districts, quasi-municipal corporations, federally recognized Indian tribes, institutions of higher education, and nonprofit organizations.

What are eligible project types?

Eligible projects to improve and protect Washington’s water quality, including wastewater facilities, stormwater facilities and activities, nonpoint source pollution abatement activities, on-site septic repair and replacement programs.
