Tutorial

Searching for groundwater information in the Ecology
Environmental Information Management (EIM) System

December 2011

Ecology Publication No. 11-03-042

Parts 1-2

Tutorial Topics

- Searching EIM for groundwater information using a map
- Viewing well details
- Displaying well logs, XY data charts, and hydrographs
- Viewing tabular groundwater search results
- Downloading the results of your groundwater search
- Searching EIM for groundwater information using a text-based search form

There are two major methods of searching for groundwater data in the EIM system...

- Map-based searches
- Text-based searches

In either case, you'll start from the Ecology Groundwater Data Center Home Page

From the EIM internet site:

www.ecy.wa.gov/eim/groundwater.htm

From the EIM intranet site (for Ecology staff):
